Senator, Assembly Minority Leader, Constitutional Officer, Bill Leonard (San Bernardino)

"Pastor Frank Erb is absolutely necessary inside the State Capitol. I know firsthand that the halls and office of the Capitol can be the loneliest places around. Legislators often do not share their pains or personal crisis because of fear. Frank lets them know that Jesus is listening and loves them. The weekly Bible study offers legislators and staff a break from politics and an opportunity to focus on the eternal. I encourage everyone to support this ministry with their prayers and their resources."

Senator Jim Beall (San Jose)

"The spiritual support that Pastor Frank Erb provides to legislators is a welcome addition to our busy week. The meetings provide time to study the Bible and better understand its meaning, which is very helpful."

Senator, Senate Minority Leader, Jean Fuller (Bakersfield)

"I urge support for Frank Erb's work. His discernment, his strict focus on the Biblical Word, and his desire to help me continue trying to live the life that God has planned for me is a gift from God. He is engaged in laying the cornerstone of faith among legislators that will help them keep God first in their lives. All of us who have experienced inviting Christ into our lives know that this is what will put our state back on the right track faster and better than any other action."

U.S. Congress Member, State Senator, Juan Vargas (San Diego)

"Pastor Frank Erb allowed me to keep Jesus first and foremost in my heart and mind while at the State Capitol."

Senator, Constitutional Officer, Ted Gaines (El Dorado Hills)

"Frank Erb is the moral heart of the Capitol community. As legislators we spend so much time with the details of bills and laws that we can neglect the bigger picture. Frank's Biblical teachings and reflections help us focus on more than just what is legal, but what is right. He helps me and other legislators live a Christ-filled life and I treasure our time together sharing the wisdom and love of God."

Assemblymember Das Williams (Santa Barbara)

"Serving in the Legislature should be an experience serving God's purposes, but it is ironically one that can take you farther from God. Pastor Frank Erb has prevented that for me."

Senator Sam Aanestad (Grass Valley)

"It's very easy to lose sight of why we're really here on this planet. Frank Erb and his ministry brings that home here at the Capitol. I encourage every legislature to have this in their Capitol, and every legislator who I meet should take part in something like this. It's very important to their spiritual life."

Assemblymember Cheryl Brown (Rialto)

"Knowing Frank Erb and that he is helping us and praying for us has made a big difference in my time in the Legislature. I am thankful for his commitment to the Lord's work."

Senator Jim Nielsen (Gerber)

"Frank Erb is a true friend of legislators and all of us. He selflessly comes to the Capitol, giving of himself to be a comfort, an inspiration, a guide and a companion. He is a bed rock example of faith to those who thirst for guidance, understanding, empathy and real caring in their challenged lives. He has spent real time in the pressure cooker environment of Sacramento so he understands what all those who work in the Capitol and in the agencies must contend with. He is a respected and dear friend."

Assemblymember Danny Gilmore (Hanford)

"Frank Erb's ministry at the Capitol is an extremely important ministry. I spent 31 years on the California Highway Patrol, patrolling some of the toughest districts in the State in South Central Los Angeles, but I will tell you this Capitol building is a very, very, tough environment. It is a spiritual warfare here, so we need your help, and remember us in your daily prayers."

Senator Steven Choi (Orange County)

"I am so grateful that Pastor Frank Erb helps California legislators stop and seek God's wisdom and guidance through the Legislators Bible Studies every Wednesday. It would be wonderful if all legislators would someday share this blessed time together. I am indeed so blessed to have Frank as my Capitol Pastor."

Assemblymember Dan Logue (Marysville)

"Frank Erb is performing a valuable service to legislators in Sacramento by providing necessary spiritual support that assists us in keeping our priorities straight."

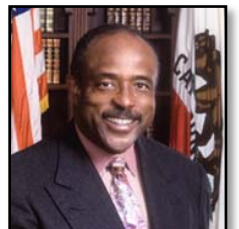

Assemblymember, Assembly Minority Leader, Martin Garrick (Carlsbad)

"In the State Capitol, Pastor Frank Erb earnestly encourages the legislators who attend his weekly Bible studies. The spiritual support he provides through the inspiration of the Word helps us honor God and remain strong for those we serve."

Senator Roderick Wright (Inglewood)

"I am thankful for Frank Erb's support and friendship during my time in the Senate. I will always remember the fellowship and love in the room during our weekly Legislators' Bible Study group."

Senator, Senate Minority Leader, Bob Huff (Diamond Bar)

"Chaos and distraction from God come with elected office. Pastor Frank Erb helps provide a refreshing pause during the week, with spiritual support and nourishment that helps keep us elected officials better grounded in God's word."

Assemblymember Cameron Smyth (Santa Clarita)

"During my time in the Legislature, I have come to count on Pastor Frank Erb as I work through the many challenges, both personal and professional, I face in the State Capitol. Frank's candor and ability to apply scripture to everyday life have made him an invaluable part of the Capitol community and I am proud to call him a friend."

Senator John Moorlach (Costa Mesa)

"After winning election to the State Senate, one of the notes under my new office door after arriving at the Capitol was a very personal one from Frank Erb. A few hours later, the very next morning, I attended my first Legislator's Bible Study and continued to participate every Wednesday possible. Frank will be a friend for eternity. I'm very appreciative of the weekly Bible Study and fellowship I enjoyed with Frank and many of my colleagues during my time in Sacramento."

Assemblymember Jeff Gonzalez (Imperial County)

"I am grateful for the leadership of Pastor Frank Erb. His guidance, led by his own faith, is an asset to the members and staff of the Legislature. Having served as a pastor myself, I thank him for his courage and dedication to uplifting others."

Senator, Senate Minority Leader, Brian Jones (San Diego County)

"As a former pastor, I know the commitment required to be in ministry, especially on the mission field. I am thankful for Pastor Frank Erb's mission in the Capitol. He is a bright light in a dark world. Throughout my many years serving in the State Senate and Assembly, I've consistently attended his weekly Legislators' Bible Studies, and often met with him personally. He is also bringing the gospel to an entire generation of young people who have never read the Bible, or for that matter even held one. He is making a difference, and he is a trusted pastor and friend to me and many others in the Capitol."

Senator Marie Alvarado-Gil (Modesto)

"I am thankful for Pastor Frank Erb and his unwavering support. My legislative colleagues and I see him throughout the Capitol hallways and he is always there to give a supportive, encouraging, word."
